

February 2010

Dear Colleague,

Website Editor Vacancy

Thank you for your interest in the National STEM Centre. I hope the enclosed information pack will help you assess whether you are a person who can join our committed and professional team supporting the National STEM Centre. Please see www.nationalstemcentre.org.uk for further information about our work.

Instructions on how to apply, and on the timetable for the process, are set out in the 'Response Instructions' document in this pack.

Your application should be returned to me by 10am on 22nd February 2010, marked Private and Confidential. Applications may be sent by post or email, all emailed applications will be acknowledged.

If you have any queries regarding your application please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Caroline Ward
